About Glen Barrentine

Glen Barrentine has extensive experience involving regulatory, compliance and enforcement issues affecting financial service companies, particularly broker-dealers, investment advisers, municipal advisors, and securities exchanges. Glen frequently represents and advises clients in connection with SEC and FINRA enforcement proceedings and other regulatory inquiries, such as inspections and examinations, as well as on transactions involving the purchase, sale or restructuring of financial service companies. Glen also provides clients with counseling and advice across the full range of regulatory and compliance issues arising under the rule sets issued by the SEC, FinCEN, FINRA and the various securities exchanges, e.g., the NYSE.

Particular areas of focus include insider trading, registration and membership, anti-money laundering, broker-dealer net capital requirements, sales practices, research, trading and trade reporting, Rule 15a-6 and cross boarder activities by foreign broker-dealers, pay to play restrictions, supervision, and soft dollars. Other areas of focus include the preparation of supervisory and compliance procedures and drafting and negotiating clearing, account, prime brokerage, and other industry agreements.

Glen was previously a member of the Board of Directors of the National Society of Compliance Professionals (NSCP), the largest organization in the US devoted exclusively to compliance in the financial services industries. He currently hosts NSCP's monthly Broker-Dealer Forum and previously chaired the NSCP's Governance Committee and Investment Advisers Forum.
